Letter of Good Standing – School completes this section

Upon the student's graduation, the student will be responsible for submitting an official eight semester transcript to Black River Technical College before a college transcript can be released. A separate Letter of Good Standing is needed when the student is enrolling in classes to be taken on the BRTC campus separately from concurrent/dual credit. Please let this serve as verification the student is a high school student, enrolled for the current high school year, and is a student in good standing.
